THE CORONATION OF ELIZABETH WYDEVILLE,
Queen Consort of Edward IV,
on May 26th, 1465.

A Contemporary Account now set forth
from a XV Century Manuscript
by GEORGE SMITH.

Sm. 4to. Printed on fine paper, with facsimile of the manuscript, boards, cloth back, 6s.

The romantic match of Edward and Elizabeth, with its notable repercussions on the history of the time and on the reign of Richard III and the Tudors, has always held the attention of historians. Until Mr. George Smith discovered the manuscript which he has now edited, no contemporary account of the Coronation of Elizabeth was known to exist. This account, rich in the various ceremonious details of the Coronation and of names of persons present, vividly brings the event before our eyes—the proud day for the young woman whose subsequent story was fraught with such pathos and misfortune.
